

EVERETT HISTORICAL COMMISSION

MINUTES

Meeting of May 20, 2019

The meeting convened at 1:00 P.M.

Present: Laurence Arinello, Camille DiPerri, Patricia Ells

Absent: Rosemary Catterson, John Juliano

- Although scheduled to appear, Tom Philbin, from the Mayor's Office, did not appear.
- The Chairman informed Commission members of the Wayfinding Program, which is being adopted by the City of Everett. The Chairman is unaware of further meetings, and the issue is apparently moot, at this juncture.
- Commission members were informed that the issue regarding historical plaques is still viable. The Commission will be taking an active role, with the assistance of former City Clerk, Michael Matarazzo, in deciding which plaques will be initially placed. Presently, there are six plaques in the final stages of completion. City Clerk, Sergio Cornelio, has indicated that he intends to send letters to the owners of the private sites, that have been designated for a plaque.
- Old Business – None
- New Business: Commission member Camille DiPerri has indicated interest in ensuring that the Parlin Memorial Library be placed on the list of historical places, as recognized by the federal government.
- Next Meeting: Thursday, September 26, 2019, Keverian Room, Everett City Hall, at 6:00.

The meeting adjourned at 1:30 P.M.
