MAYOR DEMARIA CONGRATULATES EVERETT RESIDENT MENEL LAMADZEMA Lamazema scores 1,000th career point at Mystic Valley Regional Charter School

On Monday, January 30th Mayor Carlo DeMaria welcomed Menel Lamadzema to Everett City Hall in recognition of her record-breaking achievement of scoring 1,000 career points at Mystic Valley Regional Charter School (MVRC). Lamadzema is a junior at MVRC and is the fastest player to reach this career milestone.

Menel spoke to the Mayor about future aspirations of playing college basketball. She also accredited and thanked her mother for her commitment to her career. Menel stated, "I would like to give a huge thanks to AAU basketball coach, Ushearnda Reynolds, for teaching me everything I know about the game. Without her I would not have been able to reach this milestone."

The Mayor expressed his very best wishes on this memorable occasion and conveyed his hope for continued success and the chance to score 2,000 career points.
