MAYOR DEMARIA HOSTS TWO BACK-TO-BACK EVENTS AT SENIOR BUILDINGS

On March 1st and 2nd, Mayor Carlo DeMaria and the City of Everett hosted back-to-back events for seniors in Everett. These events happened in the main lobbies of Glendale Tower and Whittier Drive, where both events consisted of an array of delicious food provided by Mayor DeMaria and the Council on Aging, and entertainment from comedian and magician Johnny Pizzi, and versatile singers Bobby G and George Lyons.

Mayor DeMaria wanted to showcase why the City of Everett appreciates its senior residents. “We really wanted to host another event to show how much we do appreciate all you’ve done for this city. We appreciate it and we appreciate you.” DeMaria stated. DeMaria cares about Everett’s seniors and will continue to plan these well-deserved events for them. He wants to continue working and giving back to the seniors as much as possible. Attendees were also given the opportunity to speak with the Mayor on whatever concerns or issues they may have had. Mayor DeMaria enjoys talking with the seniors, hearing their feedback and helping them out as much as possible. There were many laughs and memories made those nights.

Mayor DeMaria, the City of Everett and the Council on Aging plan on hosting a similar event held at 66 Main Street in the near future.
