MAYOR DEMARIA HOSTS EVENT AT EVERETT VILLA CO-OP

On April 5th, Mayor Carlo DeMaria and the City of Everett hosted a very successful event for seniors in Everett. This event happened at the Everett Villa Co-op, 66 Main Street, where the event consisted of an array of delicious food provided by Mayor DeMaria and the Council on Aging, and entertainment from comedian and magician Johnny Pizzi, and versatile singer Bobby G. Mayor DeMaria wanted to showcase why the City of Everett appreciates its senior residents. “We really wanted to host another event to show how much we do appreciate all you’ve done for this city. We appreciate it and we appreciate you.” DeMaria stated. DeMaria cares about Everett’s seniors and will continue to plan these well-deserved events for them. He wants to continue working and giving back to the seniors as much as possible. Mayor DeMaria enjoys talking with the seniors, hearing their feedback and helping them out as much as possible. There were many laughs and memories made that night.
