PARLIN LIBRARY 17 IN 17 AUTHOR EVENT PRESENT THE BRASS SISTERS

Mayor Carlo DeMaria and the Parlin Memorial Library would like to invite residents to another author 17 in 17 event with Sheila and Marilynn Brass, authors of the “Heirloom Cooking & Baking.” This program will take place at the Parlin Library on Thursday, June 8th at 7 p.m.

Over the years, both Sheila and Marilynn have collected handwritten recipes from their family, friends and even yard sales. In their latest book, they have written down culinary history handed down through the generations, with many interesting stories attached from the 1880s to present time.

“One of the nicest ways to spend time with the family is over a wonderful cooked meal. The Brass Sisters combine history, culinary arts and family recipes for families to share and enjoy.” Mayor DeMaria said, “I invite all residents to attend this interesting event.”

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Everett Libraries. Attendees are welcomed to bring their own family recipes to share with Sheila and Marilynn! There will also be copies of the Brass Sisters cookbooks for purchase and autographs.
