WYNN BOSTON HARBOR PRESENTED $12.5 MILLION CHECK FOR HOST COMMUNITY PAYMENT TO THE CITY OF EVERETT

On Wednesday, June 14th, the City of Everett and Wynn Boston Harbor held a public update meeting on the Wynn casino construction site. At the meeting, Wynn Resorts President, Robert DeSalvio, presented a check to Mayor DeMaria for $12.5 million, part of the Host Community Agreement with Wynn.

Per city ordinance, the money will go into a Host Community Enhancement Fund, which was created by home rule petition last year.

Mayor DeMaria said, “This $12.5 million check represented new growth for the City of Everett. Through our Host Community Enhancement Fund this money will allow us to invest more funds into critical municipal infrastructure and services, such as police, fire, schools, and parks, and even more importantly, these funds represent just a small portion of the $2.4 billion investment in the City of Everett and the 4,000 construction jobs and an additional 4,000 hospitality jobs that this project is creating.”
