PRESS RELEASE

Monday, July 31, 2017

COME TO THE SHUTE LIBRARY ON AUG. 10TH TO MAKE BOWLS OF SEA GLASS

Remember those days when you searched for treasures in sand while taking long walks on the beach? Just beyond the seaweed line were the shells of razor clams, scallops and snails. But the greatest treasure of all was sea glass, in shades of white, brown, green and precious blue. Our Nancy Joyce will help you make bowls of sea glass; lovely objects to fill with fruit, flowers and memories. Join us at the Shute Library Thursday, August 10th at 7:00 pm. The Shute is located at 781 Broadway. This class is for Ages 11 and UP! Materials are limited and Registration is required. Please sign up at the Shute Adult Circulation Desk or call (617) 394 2308.

All materials provided free of charge, through the generosity of the Friends of the Everett Public Libraries.
