ANTHONY SAMMARCO TO VISIT EVERETT PARLIN LIBRARY

Boston is one of those pocket cities. Unlike New York, it IS possible to walk from one end to another and really SEE the buildings and neighborhoods. So many of them have changed, and keep changing. Some of you may remember the lost neighborhood called The West End. Multi-ethnic and multi-cultural, the wrecking ball knocked it down in the 1960's. Noted historian Anthony Sammarco, of "Images of America" fame, will be at the Parlin Library on Thursday, September 28th at 7:00 pm to discuss his book "Lost Boston." If you haven't read it, we have it for you! Just bring your library card to the Shute or Parlin! The Parlin is located at 410 Broadway. Light refreshments will be served thanks to the generosity of the Friends of the Everett Public Libraries. For more information, call the Parlin Reference Desk at (617) 394 2300.
