CITY HOLDS 9/11 SERVICE AT CENTRAL FIRE STATION

Mayor Carlo DeMaria wishes to thank all of those who joined in this week's service to pay respect to the lives lost on and after the events of September 11, 2001.

Firefighters, Everett students, residents, and city employees joined together with the Mayor at Central Fire Station on Broadway to remember and honor the fallen. Reverend Thomas Coots spoke words of comfort and support and led prayers for those affected.

"I would like to thank all of those who joined in the service to pay respect to the lives lost on and after the events of September 11, 2001," states Mayor DeMaria, "We must remain resilient and united as a community, and remember and honor the fallen by carrying on and by continuing to defend and uphold the ideals we hold most true; That we are all a part of one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."
