OCTOBER STORYTIMES FOR CHILDREN AT THE SHUTE LIBRARY

There will be two, weekly storytimes at the Shute Library in October, except for holidays or when there is another special event.

Storytime for Toddlers will be held on Mondays October 2, 16, 23, and 30th at 11:15 AM in the Shute Memorial Library Children's Room. This program introduces young children and their caregivers to the joy of books, stories, rhymes, finger plays and playful props in a way that promotes early learning in a supportive group setting. The Monday programs are followed by "Time to Paint" in the Craft Room. Children can play with color and texture as they make their mark on the page.

On Tuesdays, October 3, 10, 17, and 31st, the Shute Children's Librarian will present "Picture Books for Everybody." This storytime focuses on different genres in the picture book category and invites closer attention to how visual clues help pace a story. After looking at and listening to several books, everyone will get paper; pencils and crayons and will be invited to create something inspired by one of the books.

Both programs are free and all are welcome. The Shute Memorial Library is located at 781 Broadway in Everett, MA. For more information call 617-394-5008.
