THOUSANDS CROWD GLENDALE PARK FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Mayor Carlo DeMaria Jr. was happy to see all the smiles on the faces of Everett families during the City's annual Independence Day Celebration. The gorgeous Saturday afternoon kicked off a safe holiday weekend. This year's crowd of over 2,500 people, enjoyed the free amusement rides, music from three local favorites: DJ Jasper, Inclusion and Smokin' Joe and the Henchmen, great food, plus fresh produce from the Farmer's Market.

Before the rides officially opened, local kids participated in the yearly Fun Run and Bike and Doll Carriage Decorating Contest – all participants received ribbons or medals for their patriotism and participation.

The Mayor would like to thank all the organizations and departments who helped organize the day and especially thank all the Everett families for being part of the City's celebration.
